Responsible Service of Alcohol

In accordance with the Liquor Act of NSW and the Registered Club ACT, Club Ashfield and the employees promote the responsible service of alcohol.

Our policy is

- *Not to serve alcohol to intoxicated persons
- *Not to serve alcohol to people who behave in a disorderly manner
- *Not to serve alcohol to people who are under 18 years of age
- *Not to host promotions which encourage excessive drinking or unfairly target women or men.

Anyone who is believed to be intoxicated by alcohol, drugs or misuse of medication will not be allowed to enter the premises and will be required to leave.

Procedures will be followed to ensure the safety, comfort and well-being of all customers and employees.

CLUB ENTRY

Strict legislation governs entry into the club premises and the Licensing Court imposes major fines if the legislation is breached.

If a non-member attends a function and wishes to use any of the Club's facilities such as the bar, poker machines, bistro, coffee shop, dining room, etc, that person must comply with the rules of entry. These rules state that before being admitted a non-member must be a guest of a member, a person who resides outside a five-kilometre radius of the club, or is a member of another registered club with similar objects (in our case a Catholic Club).

In all cases the appropriate register must be completed.

ADVERTISING

In accordance with the Registered Clubs Act, all functions organisers must adhere to the law and all advertising of their function must contain the statement

Function organisers must also undertake not to post notices on telegraph and lighting poles or to damage public property.

NOISE LEVELS

As the Club is situated in a residential area we are required by Ashfield Council to conform to strict noise levels. Please be considerate when leaving the club.

Please note that for social functions, fees may be payable for the hire of security guards for your function. You will be notified at the time of booking of this is required.

The charge is $35.00 per hour per 50 guests

CONTRACT AGREEMENT

Deposits are required to secure any function room hire

No refund of deposits

Function numbers to be made available no later than one week prior to function date

Room arrangements to be verified one week prior to function.

Cost will be added if late adjustments are required
